BALLOT'S BROTHER WINNER

FAIR COUNT GRADUATES FROM MAIDEN CLASS IN HIS SECOND ATTEMPT.

Gainer Has Easy Time in Winning Overnight Handicap That Serves as Feature at Laurel-First Recruit for Cuban Racing.

Laurel, Md., October 5.—Gainer had comparatively an easy task in winning the fourth race at Laurel today, a mile handicap for three-year-olds and the feature of the program. Going into the lead at once, he showed more speed than usual and opened up a two-lengths lead. The early pace was slow and Notter called on him in rounding the far turn, Under mild urging he drew away when Thornhill challenged.

James Butler won a purse with Fair Count, the brother to Ballot, which beat an indifferent band of maidens in the second. Front Royal, paying a big price, won the opener over Balfron, the favorite, which, after getting to the front, received little assistance from the apprentice McAtes.

Alex Smith Cochran, who recently came into racing with the purchase of His Majesty and several other good horses, is contemplating the establishment of a breeding farm in Kentucky. It is proposed that His Majesty shall head the stud and that some of the marce in his racing string be retired, while others will be brought irom England, Mr. Cochran will be a most valuable addition to the tranks of the breeders, for he spends his money Hearally for good horses.

While Fair Count did not show any of the free running qualities of his illustrious brother today, he came away from the whip like a good one.

F. E. Brown has decided to give his horses an easy campaign and await the opening of the racing season in Havana, He will name Donald Macdonald in a number of the stakes to be run there and will send him to the post thoroughly freshened up.

Judge Charles F. Price was a visitor from Kentucky this afternoon and he was loud in his praise of the track and the conduct of the sport. Judge Price was afforded a holiday by the closing of Donglas Fark Saturday and the fact that racing at Churchill Downs will not begin until Friday.

Sheridan Clark was an arrival from Montraethis afternoon. He came down looking for entries for the $20,000 International Derby to be run at the Doval track next season. Entries for this rich stake will close November 1

HARRY SHAW NARROWLY ESCAPES DEFEAT.

Baltimore Md.. October 5.—A field of only four faced the started in the feature race at Bowie, a dash of seven furlongs for all ages, R. J. Allison's Saim—Hand Bell colt. Harry Shaw, was returned the winner over Celto after a hard drive. Harry Shaw was held throughout the wagering at odds-on. The Busybody set the early pace, closely followed by the winner, and when the stretch turn was reached. Carroll carried Harry Shaw to the outside fence, losing many lengths. However, Louder rode a desperate finish and Harry Shaw was drawing away from the others at every jump.

The track was in fast condition in spite of Sunday night's rain. Large fields faced the starter in most of the races. Several of the finishes were of enthusiasm from the large crowd present. Two of the six choices scored, these being Bendel and Harry Shaw.

Jockey H. Wolfe was allowed to accept mounts to day by Presiding Judge Murphy. The boy was included with four others on Saturday who were refused permission to accept mounts. He produced a license which showed that he was in good standing with the Jockey Club and, after receiving a warning from the stewards as to listless riding in the future, he was permitted to make engagements. The first runup of the meeting occurred after Humiliation scored in the third race. He was advanced from his entered price of $200 to $605, at which figure he was retained by the stable. C. N. Freeman was responsible for the bidding.

Jockey Byrne and Butwell were among the arrivals today and both had mounts during the afternoon, the latter riding for A. D. Parr and Byrne for Larny Carey.

M. C. Lewis was an arrival today and joined the ranks of the layers for Larry Carey.

M. C. Lewis was an arrival today and joined the ranks of the layers.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

McTaggart and McCahey are now first and second, respectively, in the list of American jockeys for 1914. Each rode with fair success last week and McCahey's continued successes relegated Butwell to third place. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to an including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

GETTING READY AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., October 5.—Latonia is being prepared for the fall race meeting which will begin at that course two weeks from today. Superintendent Keegan has a force of men at work whitewashing the stables and fences and generally cleaning up. The track which has not been in use since the meeting closed early in July, is as hard as a concrete sidewalk. A few floodings and a couple of weeks' work with harrows will put it in excellent condition.

Already some horses have arrived at the track. They are the property of Miller & Trotter and BRILLIANT RACING IN SIGHT FOR DOWNS.

New Louisville Jockey Club's Meeting to Open Friday with Promising Prospects.

Louisville, Ky., October 5.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the New Louisville Jockey Club's meeting at Churchill Downs next Friday. Entries for the opening day of the meeting will close at the Downs Thursday morning at 10:30. President Charles F, Grainger and Treasurer H. C. Applegate are attending to all the details of the reopening, and throughout the meeting at the Downs this fall, in the absence of Manager M. J. Winn, whose presence is now necessary at the Laurel track in Maryland, where the parfunduel system of betting is being employed for the first time. Mr. Grainger has just returned from Laurel, where he went to pay Manager Winn a visit and see the operation of the mutuel system. the machines at that plant having been furnished by the Louisville concern of which he is the lead.

from Laturel, where he went to pay Manager Wana a visit and see the operation of the mutuel system. the machines at that plant having been furnished by the Louisville concern of which he is the head.

The success of the recent meetings at Lexington and Douglas Park indicates that the meeting at the Downs this fall will be brilliantly successful, as no track in all America is more popular than the great racing plant operated by the New Louisville Jockey Club.

The stables at the Downs are now rapidly filling with horses which have been quartered at Douglas Park. Those strings that did not move over to the Downs immediately after the close of the meeting will be transferred in a day or two. There are no two tracks in the country that can give horse meen better stable accommodations than the local part of the country that the would ask for stable room for at least twenty horses which racing is going on at the other, he can do so with little inconvenience.

P. T. Chinn announced yesterday that he would ask for stable room for at least twenty horses womed by Jefferson Livingston, at Juarez for the winter meeting of one hundred or more days at that plant, beginning Thanksgiving Day, November 26. Some of the English horses that will be raced in the colors of J. Keily will be tried out in races at the Downs this fall. These horses were raced in England by Emil Herz and he sold them to Kelly, because being a German subject, he can not leave that country. But for this, it is likely that he would not have narted with his horses. H. R. Brandt, trainer of Mr. Livingston baid a hig price at Latonia when that performer was a three-year-old. Brandt thinks Foundation will not stand training and racing again without a year's let-up, and as he desires to weed out from this string all the dead racing material, he let the son of Nasturtum go for a nominal figure. Foundation has been a great disappointment since he won the Bhe Grass Stakes at Lexington in such sensa out the searon on the Kentucky tracks and then ship them to Juarez at the conclusion of the Latonia fall meeting. The horses he will send early to Juarez are Osaple, Nannie McDee, Commauretta, Four Aces and Jack Riddley, Hodge is coming along promisingly at present in training and Spence expects to be able to race him during the Downs meeting and several times at Latonia. He does not now appear to have experienced any ill effects from a severe hemorrhare he sustained about a month ago.

The window poster for the coming fall meeting of the New Lousville Jockey Club is beautiful and artistic, being embellished with a handsome likeness in natural colors of Old Rosebud, winner of the Kentucky Derby last spring, in the record time of 2:03% for that race. Old Rosebud is now turned out at a farm near Lexington and has been fired in both front legs. Trainer F. D. Weir says that with a winter's rest and the care the great gelding is now receiving, he anticinates that he will come back to the turf next season and perform brillian'ly as a four-year-old. H. C. Applegate, treasurer of the New Louisville Jockey Club hand one of the chief owners of Old Rosebud, thinks that the treatment the son of Uncle has received will prove vastly beneficial to him, and he has great confidence that he will return to the turf next season and stand the severest sort of preparation. He will make a bid next season for such great stakes as the Kentucky, Clark, Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps.

Trainer J. H. Baker did not start Dr. Samuel in make a bid next season for such great stakes as the Kentucky, Clark, Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps.

Trainer J. H. Baker did not start Dr. Samuel in the Louisville Cup last Saturday at Douglas Park, as he thought he was hardly up to such a race, but he is making every effort to get the Canadian Derby winner to the post at the Downs this fall in the St. Leger Handicap, two miles and a quarter, the feature race of the New Louisville Jockey Club meeting to be decided on the closing day of the season here. Great Britain is also engaged in that event and it is expected that he will have to pick up a little more weight than he carried in the Louisville Cup. These two performers alone ensure a great contest in the St. Leger, and there are several other stayers that are receiving special preparation for this event.

An innovation is likely to be introduced by Manager John Hachmeister during the eighteen days of the autumn meeting at Latonia, October 19-November 7. He has in mind a new track rule requiring that day, to wear a white jacket with a number in bold figures on same corresponding to that bries's position on the program card. Boys warming the horses mo on the track for their race will also be compeiled to wear similar jackets. Spectators will thus be enabled to pick out any horse engaged in the race at a glance. The present system providing for numbers attached to the bridle bits of the horses in the paddock, has proven by no means perfect.

ville Cup winner has a handsome weanling brother at Edenwold Farm, which is regarded by W. O. Parmer as the equal of any colt of his age in size and general conformation to be found at any breeding farm in all America. G. M. Hendrie, the owner of Great Britain, has a half interest in this youngster and he will likely become a member of the Canadian turfman's racing stable at the proper age.

George Van Benschoten, who last rode in Germany for Baron Oppenheimer, is here now, and, recently, coming of age, inherited some money which he intends to invest in a small racing stable to campaign the coming winter at Juarez. He can never ride again, as he now weighs more than 130 pounds, but during the coming meeting at Churchill Downs he will apply to the Kentucky Racing Commission for a trainer's license.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The admission fee at Laurel is $1.50 for men and $1 for women. At Bowie it is $1.

Saturday's attendance at Laurel was estimated at 5,000, and included numerous society folk from Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphía.

Johnny Reiff, American jockey, has returned to this country from France to round up American horses for the French cavalry and artillery. "I have made my living in France for fourteen years," he said "and am now going to Kansas and select horses for the government. There will be no commission or profit in it for me. France needs horses badly. The Germans make it their business to shoot every horse they can't use."

W. F. Preserva, has autobased from John F.

badly. The Germans make it their business to shoot every horse they can't use."

W. F. Presgrave has purchased from John E. Madden the following yearlings: Chestnut filly by Star Shoot—Autumn Leaves; bay filly by Star Shoot—Janowood; brown filly by Plaudit—Merit. The above yearlings were shipped to New Jersey from Lexington last week. Mr. Presgrave also shipped in the same car his bay stallion Brya Mawr, by Atheling—Maggie Weir, and two broodmares from E. L. Davis' Rookwood Stud.

The rule heretofore in effect against "bleeders" at Plmlico has been altered to read as follows: "Owners or trainers of horses which have bled in 1914 must obtain permission of a steward of the meeting to enter such horses in races on the flat, under penalty of a fine. The entry of a horse which bleeds, in a race on the flat, will not be accepted again at the same meetings. The purpose of this rule is to eliminate the entry of horses whose bleeding is likely to prove dangerous or to cause their form to be unduly inconsistent."

SUIT OVER BETS AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., October 5.—W. H. Bickers today brought suit in the Fayette Circuit court here against Alex Rose, principal, and Frank Bissicks, agent, for the recoverey of $900 which he alleges he lost in wagers on information furnished him by Grover C. Baker. Bickers states in his petition that he wagered $300 on Sleeth, running at Douglas Park September 25, and $300 cach on Gipsy Love and Joe Deibold, running at Douglas Park September 26, Each of three wagers were made, he alleges, $100 straight, $100 place and $100 to show. Bickers filed with his petition letters signed with the name of Grover C. Baker urging him to wager on the horses named. Bickers several years ago filed a suit for the recovery of $1,050 which he alleged he lost in a local gambling house, and it resulted in the breaking up of all the card, roulette and dice games in this city, and came near causing three men to be sent to the penitentiary. During the past summer Bickers was ruled off the turf by Judge John T. Ireland at Butte, Mont., and he was denied the privilege of the Lexington track this fall in consequence.

WHITNEY HORSES ON THE WAY HOME.

New York, October 5,—Thirty-seven thoroughbreds belonging to Harry Payne Whitney, which have been racing in Europe, left England Saturday in charge of trainer A. J. Joyner, bound for this country. The stable includes twenty-one horses that have been in training during the present season and sixteen yearlings. The first-named lot will be raced over American tracks as soon as they arrive, according to the plans of Mr. Whitney. In addition to the present shipment of thirty-seven, there remain in England a large band of brood-mares with their weanlings. These will not be sent to this side until after foaling. Mr. Whitney, however, will have his entire string shipped to America as soon as possible and plans to race exclusively in this country in the future. The horses upon their arrival on this side of the Atlantic, will be taken to the Whitney farm in New Jersey.

ASTOR HORSES RUN FIRST AND SECOND.

At Newmarket last Thursday, it being the third day of the Newmarket First October meeting, the $50,000 Jockey Club Stakes for three-year-olds and over, at a mile and three-quarters, was won by W. Astor's three-year-old bay colt, Trois Temps, by William the Third-Semitone, with the same owner's three-year-old bay filly. Hamoaze, by Torpoint—Maid of the Mist, second, and Coloned W. Hall Walker's five-year-old bay horse, Rattle-Jack, by Count Schomberg—Sand Blast, third. Eleven horses ran, and in the betting it was 5 to 1 against Trois Temps, 10 to 1 against Hamoaze, and 7 to 1 against Rattlejack. It was the last of the "ten thousand pounders" of this year and in running first and second, the Astor horses probably made a record for the event. Trois Temps only previous success this year was achieved when he won the North Derby at Newcastle, June 23, defeating Green Falcon, Cressingham and four others.

HORSES ARRIVING AT HAWTHORNE.

A carload of horses arrived yesterday at the Hawthorne race track from Sedalia. Mo., to participate in the two-days meeting which will take place there on Friday and Saturday of this week. In the shipment were Jungle, Lucky Prize, Minnie Reynolds, Frank Flesher, Puck and Tip Dawdell. These horses raced last week at a fair meeting at Sedalia. The stables of N. B. Davis and Ike Striker, together with a few horses miscellaneously owned, will arrive here in a day or two from Toronto. Horses already at the track include among others Loretta Dwyer, Stick Pin. Duchess Daffy and Alberta Boy, which will be brought together in the Chicago Day Handicap, one mile and an eighth.

Five races will be run each day. There will be sone purse of $300 daily, and the others will be $200. Thomas Carey, owner of the track, is guaranteeing the purses.
